

6516208467.txt

If there was not a need for satellite radio it would not be around. It was created to fill the void that is created by subpar local radio stations and annoying local Disc Jockeys that want to skew everyone to there view. XM gives me the freedom to choose want I want to hear as well as my taffic and weather, when I need to hear it.